

The 25 most beautiful bars in NYC

By Sabrina, 30. May 2019

★★★★★ 222 ratings

We love New York City for its bar scene: from small, low key bars to perfectly designed, modern locations, there are so many different bars to choose from. Check out the 25 most beautiful bars, this city has to offer. From Manhattan to Queens and Brooklyn, we found them all.

Where can I go out in NYC?

It's the weekend, you just had a wonderful dinner and now you're wondering where you could go out in New York City. Let us share our favorite bars, which also happen to be the most beautiful ones in town. It's nice to surround yourself with the locals, sip fancy cocktails or enjoy a really good glass of wine. We narrowed down the 25 best places to go to.

The 25 most beautiful bars in town

19. Ophelia Lounge NYC Midtown East

©2018 Ophelia, Merchants Hospitality, Inc.

Ophelia is one of the newest additions to the local bar scene in Midtown East. The beautiful bar in NYC comes with 360-degree views of the East River and Manhattan skyline. Inspired by the 1920s and 30s, this place feels like a setback to the good old days where there were record players, stylish antique silverware and lots of tarot cards.

They did a great job transforming this space into a cocktail lounge but still showing the historic features that were once witnessed by artists like Frank Sinatra, Miles Davis, and Frank Zappa.

Address: 3 Mitchell Pl. (26th floor) | Neighborhood: Midtown