

The most romantic bars in NYC

Upgrade date night at New York's most romantic bars with cocktails, wine and just enough sexual tension

By Emma Orlow and Time Out contributors | Posted: Monday August 5 2019

What better way to follow up a night at one of New York's most romantic restaurants than with a mood-boosting nightcap at one of its most romantic bars? Cozy up to bae at a spot that's equal parts sweet and sexy, from one of New York's best bars with fireplaces to wine bars with dark corners made for one-on-one time. Of course, what equates to romantic may be different from person to person, but we think these spots will get your heart beating.

📍 Midtown East

Once you reach the 26th floor of Beekman Tower, you're instantly welcomed into a decadent barroom fashioned with soaring cathedral windows, jewel-tone blue walls and glass showcases filled with vintage oddities. This intoxicating music-box-like space has four doors that lead curiosity seekers to the main draw: a maze of enclosed terraces snaking around the perimeter, outfitted with red-velvet couches, checkered black-and-white floors and sweeping views of Midtown East.
